The National Real Estate Investors Association produces extraordinary real estate seminars at sea, led by the world's most respected real estate speakers on board the most exciting cruise ships in the world.

Your learning experience is combined with wondrous, exotic destinations and a congenial group of fellow shipmates from across the nation with common interests and passions.

“The one-on-one time that I got with speakers and leaders from other groups was worth so much more than the cost of the conference!”

Informal Q&A sessions allow networking in small groups on specific real estate topics. When sessions end, meet with friends in a hot tub, enjoy Las Vegas style shows, or try your luck in the casino.

We'll provide you with one of the most relaxing and pleasurable trips you've experienced, along with ample opportunity to gain knowledge in search of the best ways to profit in real estate.
